Any Nelsons In Tourney?

By JIM TAYLOR

Who is going to be the Andy Nelson of this year's city handicap tenpin championships?

Every tournament seems to produce one, a bowler who starts off with a rush but runs into bad luck in his last game and blows his chances for a title.

Few have had it tougher than Nelson did last year. Nelson came in from James Island for the singles and doubles competition, and started the singles with a whopping 245.

Then he bowled 224, and with one game remaining appeared well on the way to a record that no one was going to touch. But that third game was a wow. When he threw his last ball, Nelson had several splits and a total of 97, good enough for only a 566 series and 19th place in the singles.

Bob Lawson finished with 572-84—656 for first place.

Singles and doubles in this year's tournament begin today at Strathcona Bowling Alleys with shifts at 1 and 3 p.m. They conclude tomorrow with shifts at 10 a.m., 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9 p.m.

Also at stake will be the all-events title and the Jack Bacon Memorial Trophy.

Stan Jones, rolling at Gibson's Bowladrome, made the fivepin news of the week on Greater Victoria lanes with an 898 (336, 314) series. Don Corbett had 869 (319) and Jack Maxwell rolled 843 (417), his single game being high for the Gibson's alleys this season.

Other high scorers at Gibson's included Bill Cool, 821 (318); Reg Waggoner, 773; R. Chamberlain, 766; B. McKay, 755; R. Dinney, 755; Muzz Smellie, 745, and Harold Gent, 744. G. Lintaman had a 368 single.

Sam Smitherman had a fine week at Capital City Bowling Alleys with 836, 812 and 823 series. Pete Bowe rolled 824 (321), Cec McRae, 817, and Jerry Girard, 813 (341).

Bert Garnot, 774; George Wagg, 754; Art Fletcher, 751; Reg Waggoner, 748; E. Busst, 748; Vic Harrison, 736, and Stan Bell, 727, and 401 were the other top bowlers at Capital City.

Cathy Roberts was high fivepin bowler at Strathcona with 701.

Con McBeth was the week's high tenpinner in league play at Gibson's, rolling 617 (205, 223). He was followed by G. Brown, 592 (203, 212); Wilbur Webb, 592 (209); Ed Borde, 578 (206, 202); Ken Munn, 573 (234); Roy Begg, 571 (200); B. Hill, 571 (219, 208); E. Curtis, 568 (224); Ron Coulter, 562; Bill Holness, 564 (212); L. Kamann, 565 (201); Tess Kamann, 562; Bill Oakley, 558, and T. Lenton, 557 (216).

At Strathcona, Andy Palmer highlighted a slow week with 587 (204, 214). Among other high scorers were Wilf Smith, 579 (240, 206); Ron Wilson, 555 (203); Herb Chandler, 550; Bruce McDermid, 553 (220); Ron Cush, 545, and Jack Fletcher, 542.

Ortega Wins Split Decision Over Stitch

NEW YORK (AP)—Gaspar Ortega, handicapped by a cut over his left eye suffered in the third round, broke a three-fight losing streak Friday night with a split decision over Rudell Stitch of Louisville, Ky. Stitch weighed 144, Ortega 146½.

The two boys came together in the third round and Stitch apologized as he backed away while blood started to flow from a cut over Ortega's left eye. Apparently it was an accidental butt.

They took turns in a free-swinging scrap as the tide changed from round to round. Ortega, called the "unlucky Indian" because he has lost three straight split decisions, scored heavily with body blows against his faster opponent.

Something's Missing

Ever get the feeling you've forgotten something? Albin Plank of Austria did, and looked down to find one of his skis missing in the middle of a jump. Ski was left behind as he started his leap, but Plank escaped uninjured although badly shaken. —(CPC)

Vancouver Stop On Rugby Tour

An all-star British Isles rugger team will play B.C. Reps in an exhibition match Sept. 26 in Vancouver.

Announcement was one of three made yesterday regarding upcoming exhibition matches in British Columbia.

The British Isles team will be chosen March 22nd from the best English, Scottish, Welsh and Irish internationals, and will tour Australia and New Zealand. The game in Vancouver will be played on the way home from the tour. Another exhibition, this time against eastern Canada all-stars, is planned for Toronto, Sept. 29.

Officials of the Ontario Rugby Union have announced plans for a tour of British Columbia in May.

HERE MAY 6

Tentative schedule calls for a game against Vancouver Reps May 2; against Victoria Reps in Victoria May 6, and another match in Vancouver May 9 against a B.C. rep team.

In Vancouver, Dave Mackenzie, manager of the B.C. rep team that will tour Japan later this month, was instructed yesterday to invite a Japanese team to make a return visit in 1960.

$12,000 NEEDED

Bob Spray, past president of the B.C. Rugby Union, made the announcement at a meeting called primarily to pinpoint the B.C. team's need for $12,000.

Spray indicated that if the visit is made, games will probably be played in Victoria, Vancouver, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Victoria's Martin Foursome Women's Bonspiel 'Spoilers'

NANAIMO—Three Victoria rinks were able to manage only one victory in eight games yesterday in the opening day of the Vancouver Island women's curling playdowns. But the victory was the biggest upset of the day.

Flora Martin's Victoria quartet, beaten in its Victoria game and first game here yesterday, bounced back to knock Kay Wright of Port Alberni from the unbeaten ranks with a 9-6 win.

Despite the loss, Mrs. Wright is tied for first place with Mrs. Helen Wilson of Nanaimo, who won three successive games yesterday after being beaten in her "home" game.

	W	L
Kay Wright, Port Alberni	3	1
Helen Wilson, Nanaimo	3	1
Helen Berkey, Duncan	2	1
Doris Fiss, Nanaimo	2	1
Margaret Harper, Duncan	2	2
Edna Souther, Port Alberni	2	2
Flora Martin, Victoria	1	2
Doris Fraser, Victoria	1	2
Donna Taylor, Victoria	0	3

The first draw of the playdowns had rinks from the same towns pitted against each other and were played previous to the bonspiel.

Mrs. Wright's rink defeated Doris Fraser of Victoria, 10-7, and edged Doris Fiss of Nanaimo, 8-7, in the closest game of the day before being beaten by the Victoria rink. Mrs. Wright's other victory came in her home game against Edna Souther.

DREW FOR THREE

The Wright-Fiss game was tied 5-5 after seven ends and Mrs. Fiss was leading 7-5 coming home. Mrs. Wright, counting two when she went back to throw her final rock, drew in for the three points and the victory.

Mrs. Wilson defeated Margaret Harper of Duncan, 12-1, Donna Taylor of Victoria, 9-7, and Doris Fraser of Victoria, 7-5, to chalk up her perfect day. She lost to Doris Fiss in her home game, 11-5.

Complete results and today's draw:

Move Over, Baldwin

Meet Andrew McBathgate, an ardent curler who also happens to play a pretty fair game of hockey for New York Rangers of the National Hockey League. Bathgate currently leads the NHL both in goals scored and total points.—(CPC.)

Littler Leading Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Gene Littler, who has been on the outside looking in at tournament golf championships for almost two years, Friday took the second-round lead in the $20,000 Phoenix Open.

Littler tied the record for the 6,602-yard Arizona Country Club course with a seven-under-par 63. Coupled with Thursday's 67, it gave him a 36-hole total of 130—10 under par.

Until Littler started his assault on par on the back nine, it had appeared that John McMullin and Joe Campbell would be the second-day leaders. They finished with a two-day total of 132.

LEONARD 23rd

Stan Leonard of Vancouver was in a five-way tie for 23rd with 140 based on rounds of 71 and 69.

Farther back in the Canadian contingent was Al Balding of Toronto with 73-71—144.

Jerry Magee of Toronto, who led the field going into the second round with an Arizona Country Club course record of 63, slipped to a 71 and fell four strokes off the pace.

Deadlocked with Magee at 134 is veteran Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., winner of last week's San Diego Open.

Art Wall Jr. had 135.

At 136 were Al Besselink, Paul Harney and Bill Johnston.

Crystal Hosts Swim Battle

Victoria's outstanding young swimmers take to the pool at Crystal Garden tonight in the annual battle between Victoria Amateur Swimming Club and Victoria Flying Y, for the city amateur title.

A total of 36 events are scheduled tonight, with heats to start at 6.30 and finals at 7.

Competition will be split into five age classifications for boys and girls, with freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke and relay races in each division. Age groups are 10 and under, 12 and under, 14 and under, 16 and under, and senior.

Two of last night's four diving events had only one entrant. Christine Bailey took senior ladies' honors with a score of 41.8 and Bruce Burton won the junior boys' title with 54.1 points.

Mary Helen Johaneson won the junior girls' championship with 37.4 points. Anita Roy was second with 36 points and Lynn Green third with 17.4.

John Gillespie piled up 76.7 points in winning the senior men's crown, followed by Alec Hancock with 67.8 and Brian de Blois with 17.8.

The annual city competition is sponsored by the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club.

Bantam Senators Beat Royels, 4-2

HOW THEY STAND

Capitals	11	1	1	76	33	23
Royals	5	6	2	47	47	12
Maroons	5	7	1	44	52	11
Senators	3	10	0	43	78	6

Richard Clendenning scored two goals and Mike McAvoy and Keith Ramsay added one each yesterday as Senators downed Royals, 4-2, in the bantam division of the Greater Victoria Minor Hockey Association.

Jim Ogilvie and Bill Falconer scored for Royals.

Bathgate Takes Over

Andy Bathgate of New York Rangers, who played second fiddle to Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion at the top of the NHL individual points race most of the season, took over first place for himself Thursday night.

Bathgate scored his 29th goal—best production in the league—and two assists as Rangers blanked Detroit Red Wings 5-0.

The leaders:

	G	A	Pts.
Bathgate, New York	29	34	63
Geoffrion, Montreal	20	41	61

Please, Ed, No Pictures!

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—It was a bright spring-like day Friday and Spokane Chronicle photographer Ed Gilkey went out to the Esmeralda golf course to take some unseasonal pictures.

He found 25 golfers and said 23 refused to have their pictures taken.

"They said," Gilkey reported to his editor, "that their bosses would fire them if they knew where they were during working hours."

Cats Sign Two

HAMILTON (CP)—Hamilton Tiger-Cats have signed halfback Duane Wood of Oklahoma State University and end Jim Tucker, another U.S. college star, for the 1959 big four football season.
